DESCRIPTION:

Featuring the stunning lead vocal of Deen Castronovo of Journey, The Hitmaker's Don't Stop Believin' contains four remixes of the radio anthem that will rock the dancefloor and destroy preconceptions. More than just "club mixes," these tracks are expansions of the key ingredients that made the original Journey recording such a massive hit. The Hitmaker is revitalizing dance music with his mind-boggling remixes of unlikely-yet-perfect dancefloor anthems from The Who, to REO Speedwagon. In live shows with Rjd2 and others, he is recontextualizing songs that had never been considered to be remotely danceable.

The Hitmaker says, "My mixes bring the song to light in a new context, where people can enjoy the magic of the melody without the stigma of, 'You're listening to Journey?!' It reveals a new side to a great song that nobody had considered for the dance floor. And it gives me a chance to celebrate and revive the music that I grew up listening to on the radio."
